(d) if so, whether the views of the Board of BRPL and the Ministry were also obtained;

(e) if not, the reasons therefor;

(f) whether BRPL has expansion programme to execute a Benzine Plant Project as well as Xylene expansion Project on its own; and

(g) if so, the status of the same and the impact of the recommendation of disinvestment on its expansion plan?

THE MINISTER OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI JANESHWAR MISHRA) : (a) Year-wise details of profit earned by BRPL during last three years are given below:

(Rs. in crores)
Year	Profit before tax (PBT)	Profit after tax(PAT)
1994-95	85.25	61.06
1995-96	120.17	90.15
1996-97	30.54	29.07
Total	235.96	180.28

(b) Yes, Sir.

(c) The Disinvestment Commission in its report Part II of April, 1997 has recommended as follows:

"The Commission recommends that a strategic sale of 50% of shares of BRPL may be offered immediately to Indian or foreign oil companies either on their own or in association with one another.

There could be an agreement with the selected strategic partner specifying further dilution of Government equity to 26% or below through a public offer to Indian Institutions, small investors and employees at a later date."

Disinvestment Commission has also recommended that prior to the strategic sale, the Government should make a policy statement for phasing out of Administered Price Mechanism of all petroleum products within a period of two years.

(d) and (e) BRPL and Ministry officials had periodic discussion with the Disinvestment Commission.

(f) and (g) BRPL is examining the feasibility of setting up these projects. Final decision would depend on the basis of economic viability of these proposed projects.
